1. If there is no exam administered for a course, the student is not required to attend for that exam session.
2. Once a student arrives on campus, he/she must remain until the completion of his/her last exam for the day. Students may not leave campus between exams.
3. If a student is on campus but does not have an exam, he/she must be in the cafeteria at all times.
4. If a student arrives late to an exam, he/she will not receive extra time to complete the exam.
5. Students will stay in their exam room until the completion of the exam period. Students may bring something to read or study should they finish early.
6. Students will follow CPS dress code guidelines in order to be granted entrance to the exam. A dress code violation will be considered an unexcused absence, and the student will not be admitted until the violation is corrected. All missed exam time is considered unexcused.
7. Any request to change an exam schedule will be granted only under extreme circumstances and must be approved by the course instructor and the Upper School Principal.
8. All electronic devices which students bring into the exam room will be collected by the exam proctor prior to the beginning of the exam and will be returned at the end of the exam period.
9. It is the sole responsibility of the student to provide appropriate and allowed materials (pens, pencils, calculators, etc.) Translators for international students must be in "airplane" mode. Phone translators are not allowed.

Friday, December 14: 3:00 p.m. dismissal (Day 0 Chapel Schedule – Seniors remain on campus.)
